Tarragon
OPUS
Luxury Leisure Lodge

Advent has taken everything that customers love about the successful Tarragon leisure lodge and created the unique and stunning Tarragon Opus with optional integral spa suite and/or sun lounge.

The Opus combines beautiful designed styling with fantastic features like the optional spa suite and sun lounge, shown in the pictures below. The suite, contains a Wellness™ shower with steam, light, music and aromatherapy plus a separate Swedish sauna with powerful 6Kw heater. Next to the suite is a glass fronted sun lounge complete with basket weave furniture.

The Opus, though, like all Advent models, is a flexible design. For example, customers, often choose to convert the whole spa suite into one huge sun lounge, the choice is yours.

The
Tarragon
OPUS

The Tarragon has everything needed for a perfect second home: two or three spacious bedrooms, en-suite shower room and family bathroom plus fully fitted kitchen leading to comfortable dining and lounge areas. We retained all this in its original flowing layout when we designed the Opus. adding Velux roof windows in the living areas with flat screen television and DVD as standard with air-conditioning as a further option.

To enhance these state-of-the-art features, the Tarragon Opus has stunning contemporary interior styling and luxury furnishings to match.

The exterior is timber clad in light oak finish and the distinctive oriel windows are retained. Other alternative, lower maintenance, exterior cladding solutions are available, in a wide variety of styles and colours. All models have UPVC double-glazed windows throughout, full gas-fired central heating and are constructed to residential standards. Tarragon Opus sizes range up to 20m x 6.8m (65' x 22' approx).

Advent: Quality

Quality is something we take very seriously as we design and build our homes and lodges. Quality and attention to detail at every stage mean that you can move in secure in the knowledge that you have a home that's really built to last.

Advent's design and craft skills are second to none. Furthermore we manufacture our homes in state-of-the-art facilities drawing on all the expertise of our parent company, Shepherd Building Group. And at the end of the process we carefully check over your home before it is packed for delivery.

Everything we do fully complies with our industry quality standard: BS 3632 (lodges are also available to BS.EN.1647) which means our lodges are built to a full residential specification. But we don't just meet this standard, we aim far above it. Our homes have a more solid construction and are better insulated than many other models on the market today. They are double glazed using the latest low emissivity-glass and have gas central heating throughout.
